

The Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

Dear Bourgie,

Before we know it, taxes will be so high on the means of communication, we won't be able to drive anywhere or talk to anyone. Are you looking to drive all of us mad? A dollar may see insignificant to you, however, it is something to me.

Think about the Proloteriat, for a change.

Sincerely,

andrea puglisi
8 diamond drive
clinton, Connecticut 06413